

Do you know that you may not need to see the doctor
for pain symptoms?

You do not need
a prescription
for pain
medicines.

Community pharmacists can offer advice on how to treat your pain.

Many treatments are available for little cost from a community pharmacy.

Please help us save NHS resources that can be invested to improve local healthcare services.